Dear editor,

We would like to resubmit our research article entitled “Interactive Search and Exploration of Real-Life Image Collections: Components, Strategies and Evaluation” for consideration by IEEE Transactions on Multimedia. We confirm that this work is original and has not been published elsewhere, nor is it currently under consideration for publication elsewhere.

This article was first submitted with id MM-015341 on 27 July 2022. As suggested by the Associate Editor (Dr Wen-Huang Cheng), we have carefully checked the resubmission guidelines. We have used the valuable comments of the reviewers to significantly improve our paper. The details can be found in our response-to-reviewers letter.

We have no conflicts of interest to disclose. All authors have approved the manuscript and agree with its submission to IEEE Transactions on Multimedia.

Thank you for your consideration of this manuscript.

Sincerely,
Floris Gisolf,
Zeno Geradts,
Marcel Worring
